August 13, 2021 was hot. Very hot. Temp in the high 90's with a heat index over 100. Most were happy just to survive the round. In the end the day belonged to Patrick who carded a 78 for a 4 stroke victory over Steve Fogarty, last year's champion. Other winners:

2020 Champion Steve Fogarty

The day started with chaos as Merrimack double booked the tee times. They thought that it was a normal week with us starting at 2:00. Luckily, it all worked out and we had really nice weather to hold the club championship.

Congrats to Steve Fogarty, our club champion for 2020. His round of 78 edged Pat Keane (80), Patrick Casazza (81), Jim Rappoli (82) and Mike Damico (84).

2017 Club Champion

Ho Hum. Jeremy Berg won again. In other action, Jim Haker was brilliant as he claimed the low gross in the Championship Flight with a sizzling 79. Sam Sahagian proved that he was still a force with a tournament best net 63. Dick Pais continues his extraordinary season with the Flight A low gross of 88. Equally impressive was Bob Majeau's low net of 67. Charlie Beauchain had a Flight B best 93 and Daniel D. DiLorenzo somehow managed to keep the ball in play to card a low net of 66 for the final NSGC shirt.

Closest the pin: Ken LeBlanc (13'8" on 5) and Dick Plouffe (5'5" on 17).
Longest Drive : John Medeiros & Dee Woodward.

Who Wore it Best Contest

2016 Club Champion Jeremy Berg

It was a brutal hot day but the key match for the club champion was burning hotter. Jeremy trailed Patrick Casazza by 2 strokes going to the 17th. Berg sunk a long putt for a birdie and Patrick had some issues for a triple bogie. Jeremy held the lead on 18 to clinch the championship with a round of 76. Also noteworthy was Dee Woodward's tournament- best net 64. Other winners :

Flight	Low Gross	Low Net

2015 Club Champion: Skip Kelley

It came down to the last hole. Skip and Jim Rappoli were tied. Jeremy was one stroke behind. Approach shots to the 18th green were chunked, shanked and bladed into a bunker. Skip hung on with a bogey to claim the championship with an 81. In other action:

Flight	Low gross	Low Net

2014 Club Champion: Jeremy Berg

The weather conditions were perfect and the course was ripe for some low scores.

Barb Hecimovich carded an 82. Jim Haker and Mark Silver (83), Skip Kelley (84), Bob Gorey (85) & Jim Rappoli were all in the hunt.

However, the day belonged to Jeremy Berg. He shot a sizzling 73 to capture the title of NSGC Club Champion for 2014. Outstanding.

Tournament Low Net

A lot of folks predicted that Mike D'Amico, Mike O'Sullivan, Jim Haker, Ken LeBlanc or Rich Barbati would win the overall low net round. Everyone guessed wrong.

If you picked Jere O'Sullivan you would have been close. He had a great round for a net 65. Same for Ed Bauer (65) and Bill Noonan (66). All very nice but the day belonged to Berg with a net 64. Jeremy attributed his success to a couple of helpful pointers from his foursome cart mate Ralph D'Elia (Ralph schooled Jeremy on how to hole a bunker shot from 75 yards out on the first hole. Seriously. Nobody saw the shot and they gave up looking after a 5 minute search. They were surprised to find the ball in the cup)

2013 Club Champion: Jim Rappoli (39)

It was wet. Really wet. Many decided to stay home. Several showed up but decided not to play when they saw the conditions. Cazoo was ready to play but he left after learning that there would be no sausages at the turn.

31 people set out in the steady rain. Some gave it up after 9. Those who continued were greeted with heavier rain. The course began to flood. The siren sounded to end action. The course was determined to be unplayable.

After the scorecards were dried off, Jim Rappoli was declared the Club Champion.

In other action, Jeremy Berg, Skip Kelley, Jim Haker and Mark Silva all finished with 41. Mark won the low gross in the flight based on a tie breaker. Larry Egan won the low net with a 33.

Dick Pais won the A flight low gross with a 44. Mike O'Sullivan won the low net of 35 (beating Bob Gorey on another tie breaker)

Robin Lambert rejoiced in the rain with a personal best 40 to win the B flight low gross. She attributes her stellar effort to her anger of being dumped from Steve O'Brien's foursome. The unfeeling Steve would go on to post a low net of 35.

In the C flight, Ed O'Brien won with a 51. Lynette took the low net with a 38.

Ralph Callahan won the closest to the pin on 17. Joe Kennedy won it on the 5th. Skip Kelley had the longest drive on 10. Lynette and Dee tied the longest drive for the ladies.

2009 Skip Kelley

The 2009 Club Championship was our 14th. With this year's win, Skip has won half of them and five of the last six. Can you say dynasty? "Sandbagger of the Year", Cazoo, came within two strokes but had a big hiccup on one of his holes which cost him. Sorry, I can't remember which hole it was. We had a beautiful day and the course opened all but the new 16th for us. This week the course will be fully open for League play for the first time in five (?) years.
